

The Unicorn

The Bishop's Finger

The Unicorn

The Goods Shed
Docker Beer

The Millers Arms

The Dolphin

The Parrot

The Thomas Tallis

The New Inn

The Pound

The Bishop's Finger

The Pound

The Lady Luck

The Cricketers

The Dolphin

The Parrot

The Thomas Tallis

The Lady Luck

The New Inn

The Foundry

The Thomas Becket

Oscar & Bentleys

Chuck & Blade

Cathedral Lodge

Cathedral Lodge

Alberry's

The Foundry

The Shakespeare

The Cricketers

The Thomas Becket

The Black Griffin

The White Hart

The Shakespeare

Chuck & Blade

Old City Bar

NOT TO SCALE

3 km

whitehart-canterbury.co.uk

The White Hart is an inviting hidden historic gem within Canterbury's city walls.

Home-cooked Turkish pizza, Pide (Pea-Day), is on offer made using local produce, served up in this traditional pub alongside real ales, handpicked British and International wines, gins, ciders and specialty cocktails.

The dog-friendly pub has the largest garden in Canterbury - a leafy and secluded place to relax in. The White Hart is open all week, and can cater for gatherings of all sizes.

shakespearecanterbury.com

An elegant establishment with an adjoining wine bar, The Shakespeare is a wonderful place to enjoy dinner and drinks, with a firm focus on beautiful home-grown ingredients.

The pub offers traditional British classics, Kentish gourmet burgers and wine flights, and cosy tables for a peaceful drink.

Next door is the Shakespeare's wine bar, home to more than 45 beautiful bottles with a view of the historic Canterbury Cathedral.

parrotcanterbury.co.uk

One of Canterbury's oldest buildings, The Parrot was built on Roman foundations in the 14th century - while the city's famous cathedral was under construction nearby.

Tucked away along a picturesque cobbled street, the pub offers a wealth of medieval beams, oak floorboards and authentic log burners providing an atmospheric backdrop to fine food and drink, including up to six real ales on the bar.

The Parrot has a courtyard garden which is perfect for the summer, and offers a first floor medieval function room catering for all special occasions.

bishopsfingercanterbury.co.uk

With its charming olde-worlde exterior, the 16th Century Bishop's Finger is one of Canterbury's most distinctive pubs.

The pub offers one of the largest beer gardens in Canterbury - a hidden gem in the city, with a TV screen outside. One of five large screens throughout the pub, it shows all the latest action on Sky Sports.

Menu options range from tasty bar snacks to brilliant burgers, so if you're looking for a pub in Canterbury with food, football and fabulous beer, let the Bishop's Finger point the way.

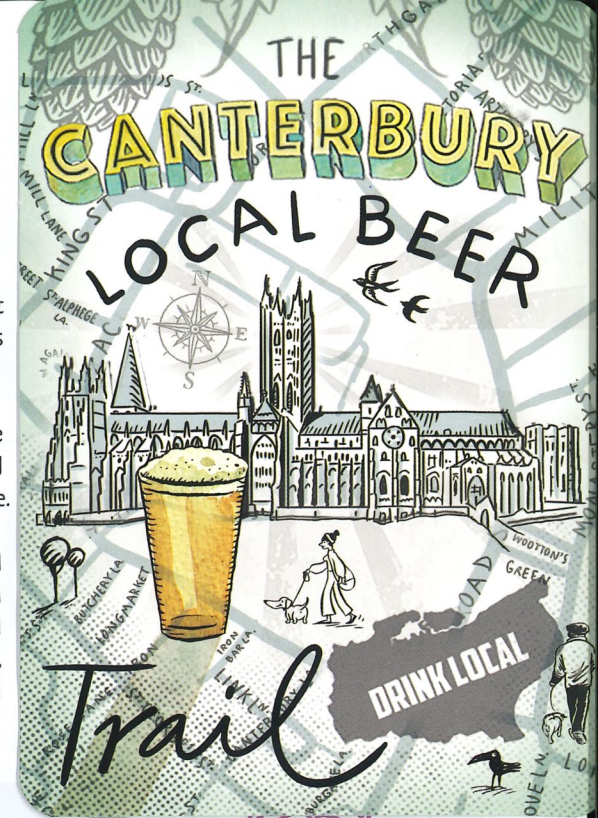

cricketerscanterbury.co.uk

A traditional English pub on the busy High Street in the centre of Canterbury, The Cricketers offers a warm welcome to all.

The Cricketers has been an institution on the High Street for many years, serving good local ales, beers and fine wines by the glass and bottle.

The pub has a sunny and colourful courtyard garden and for the colder months a wood-burning stove. There is a traditional food menu and outside seating on the High Street, making The Cricketers a great place to sit and watch the busy world go by.

millerscanterbury.co.uk

One of the top-rated pub hotels in Canterbury, the Millers Arms is a fine place to drink, dine and stay in the cathedral city. Built in 1826 to serve local mill workers, it continues to serve up fresh ales and fabulous food within easy walking distance of the city's top tourist attractions.

Smart and stylish with warm modern decor, a cosy inglenook fireplace and an attractive courtyard garden, the pub boasts twelve beautiful ensuite bedrooms. Each room offers elegant and affordable city-centre accommodation, with some promising impressive cathedral views.

oldcitybar.co.uk

A hidden gem of a Canterbury pub, Old City Bar serves up fresh food, premium spirits and cocktails, and a vast selection of beers.

Offering the best of both worlds, it is situated just outside of the historic city walls, but far enough away to provide respite from the crowds.

With one of the biggest beer gardens in Canterbury, Old City Bar has a popular pub quiz, regular live music, pool and table tennis all on offer, there's no shortage of fun to be had for all the family.

facebook.com/dolphincanterbury

Welcome to the Black Griffin - a quirky pub a minute from the historic Westgate Towers. Serving a wide selection of real ale, lagers, cocktails and everything in between, you're sure to find something to your taste.

In the summer, soak up the heat in our secluded courtyard, or in the winter months, warm yourself by our open fire.

We hold regular live gigs, open mic and DJ nights...-so there is always something to entertain you in our unique pub. We look forward to welcoming you soon!

facebook.com/dolphincanterbury

Situated on the outskirts of the city centre, the dolphin is the hub of students and workers alike to let their hair down. Enjoy a beautiful heated pub garden or our warm interior with friends in a relaxed environment. Offering a wide range of beers, gins and cocktails, as well as a diverse menu with pub classics, vegan options and delicious high end pub meals.

We are welcoming to all, with hundreds of regulars who seek out the dolphin for its exciting atmosphere and fantastic customer service.

unicorninn.com

17th Century "village" Pub in the heart of St Dunstan's. A traditional, cosy space to enjoy great beer and other drinks too. It also serves a traditional menu daily. It has a lovely secret garden and dogs are welcome throughout. Established in 1604, The Unicorn Inn has since been a main feature of Canterbury. One of the only pubs in Canterbury with a bar billiards table also boasting CAMRA Real Ale Pub of Year award.

theladyluck.co.uk

The Lady Luck is a rock n' roll bar in the heart of Canterbury. Relax during the day and enjoy a meal with a wide range of craft beer, real ale and ciders. Secluded courtyard garden and seating outside the front of the pub for sunny days. Visit in the evenings for social drinks and a friendly atmosphere. Well behaved dogs and under 18's welcome until 8pm. Food menu has something to suit all tastes, with a wide range of vegan and vegetarian choices alongside traditional British pub classics.

thefoundrycanterbury.co.uk

The Foundry is a unique craft brewery, distillery, restaurant, and bar. With over 14 Beers and 9 spirits which are all handcrafted from scratch on site. The vaulted 18th century cellar provides the perfect environment for the beers before being served unfiltered & unpasteurised.

One of the few distilleries in the country to handcraft its spirits from its base alcohol, all the way to the final product, using the finest English barley. Guaranteeing they are made with natural, high-quality ingredients, handpicked by Head Brewer, Distiller and Co-Owner Jon Mills.

thomas-becket.com

A cosy city pub, located in the backwaters of historical Canterbury.

A cracking range of beers, wines and spirits sit behind the bar, coupled with quirky art, curiosities, and plenty of cosy or lively spots to enjoy your pint and put the world to rights. A log burner to keep you warm and a charming courtyard for the warmer months.

Popular with diners. The eclectic menu sees British classics rub shoulders with modern bistro dishes.

thethomastallisalehouse.co.uk

The Thomas Tallis Alehouse serves a wide range of beers from the cask, from key keg and in bottles and cans. They offer over 30 beers at any one time. Alongside the beers a selection of great wines including from the fabulous Barnsole Vineyard at Staple, near Ash are available. Ciders also feature showcasing the excellent cider makers of Kent and further afield. As with the beers the cider selection will change so you can sample the wide range that exists.

newinncanterbury.co.uk

The New Inn Victorian back-street terraced house a few minutes' walk from the cathedral, St Augustine's Abbey and the bus station. The main bar has a cosy wood burner and a jukebox. The back has a long bright conservatory where there are papers to browse over your pint, and a range of board games. Beer festivals are held on Whitsun and August bank holiday weekends in the pub and the attractive garden. Large whisky and gin selection. Interesting and ever-changing seven cask beers. Local CAMRA Pub of the Year in 2017 and 2018.

onepoundlane.co.uk

set within Canterbury's atmospheric former city jail and England's largest surviving medieval gateway built in 1380 - Canterbury's iconic Westgate Towers. Enjoy local food and drink until late in its beautifully restored former police cells and on its picturesque riverside terrace, the perfect summer suntrap.

At One Pound Lane you'll also find an award-winning escape room experiences, the Westgate Towers Museum & Viewpoint (free entry when you dine!), and unique event spaces such as the former police Parade Room.

alberrys.co.uk

A little chameleon of a bar in the heart of the city with a very chilled wine bar vibe in the day that turns upside down in the evening with cocktails flowing and the unique cellar dance-floor filled into the early hours.

We offer an extensive range of drinks with 100 rums and probably the biggest selection of spirits in Canterbury!

That paired with over 50 cocktails and a fabulous wine list makes us a must visit for any trip to Canterbury!

Sponsored by: